JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY
1849-1916

James Whitcomb Riley was undoubtedly the most popular American poet of the end of the nineteenth century. He was the poet of the children and of simple sentiment, and he immortalized the rural dialect of his state.

Riley was born in Greenfield, Indiana, and always made his home in or near Indianapolis.

Some of his best known poems are "When the Frost is On the Punkin", "The Old Man and Jim", "Out to Old Aunt Mary's", "The Old Swimmin' Hole", "The Raggedy Man", and "Little Orphant Annie".

"Who lives for you and me¹
Lives for the world he tries
To help—he lives eternally,
A good man never dies!"

"In this book of simple rhyme, Spare your scythe, Old Father Time".

WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUNKIN¹

When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock
And you hear the kyouck and gobble of the struttin' turkey-cock
And the clackin' of the guineys, and the cluckin' of the hens,
And the rooster's hallylooyer as he tiptoes on the fence;
O, it's then's the times a feller is a-fellin' at his best,
With the risin' sun to greet him from a night of peaceful rest,
As he leaves the house, bareheaded, and goes out to feed the stock,
When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock.

¹From NEIGHBORLY POEMS by James Whitcomb Riley.

"The kind of a man for you and me! He faces the world unflinchingly."

ACTIVITIES

AN OLD SWEETHEART OF MINE¹

As one who cons at evening o'er an album, all alone,
 And muses on the faces of the friends that he has known,
 So I turn the leaves of Fancy, till, in shadowy design,
 I find the smiling features of an old sweetheart of mine.
 'Tis a fragrant retrospection,—for the loving thoughts that start
 Into being are like perfume from the blossom of the heart;
 And to dream the old dreams over is a luxury divine—
 When my truant fancies wander with that old sweetheart of mine.

ANNUAL STAFF

After a program, "Why You Will Want To Buy an Annual," presented on October 4, the "Annual" subscription drive was officially opened. The announcer was Jeannette Williams, and the pianist was Marilyn Futrell. Members of the class represented people in different walks of life, and the senior class took part in singing "Our Annual Forever!"

To launch the drive, the class was divided into two teams: the Blue team headed by Claredene Morris and the Gold team headed by Patti Buckley. The gold team was the winner. Individual winners were Claredene Morris and Edith Spaulding.

When the drive was completed, try-outs were held for positions on the staff, and the contestants watched eagerly for the announcement of results.

Soon the new staff began its work, which progressed smoothly and rapidly. The highlight of staff work was the evening the entire group met to write the class will and prophecy.

CRIER STAFF

The Crier Staff is a volunteer group of juniors, who meet once a week to write the school news. The news is then published in the local paper.

The staff members are Emmitt Beeks, James Bonjour, Phyllis Herring, Carolyn Parker, Clysta Sills, Bob Starr, Mary Trant, Norma Zigler, and Marjorie Sutton, who replaced Carrie Norton when the latter withdrew from school.

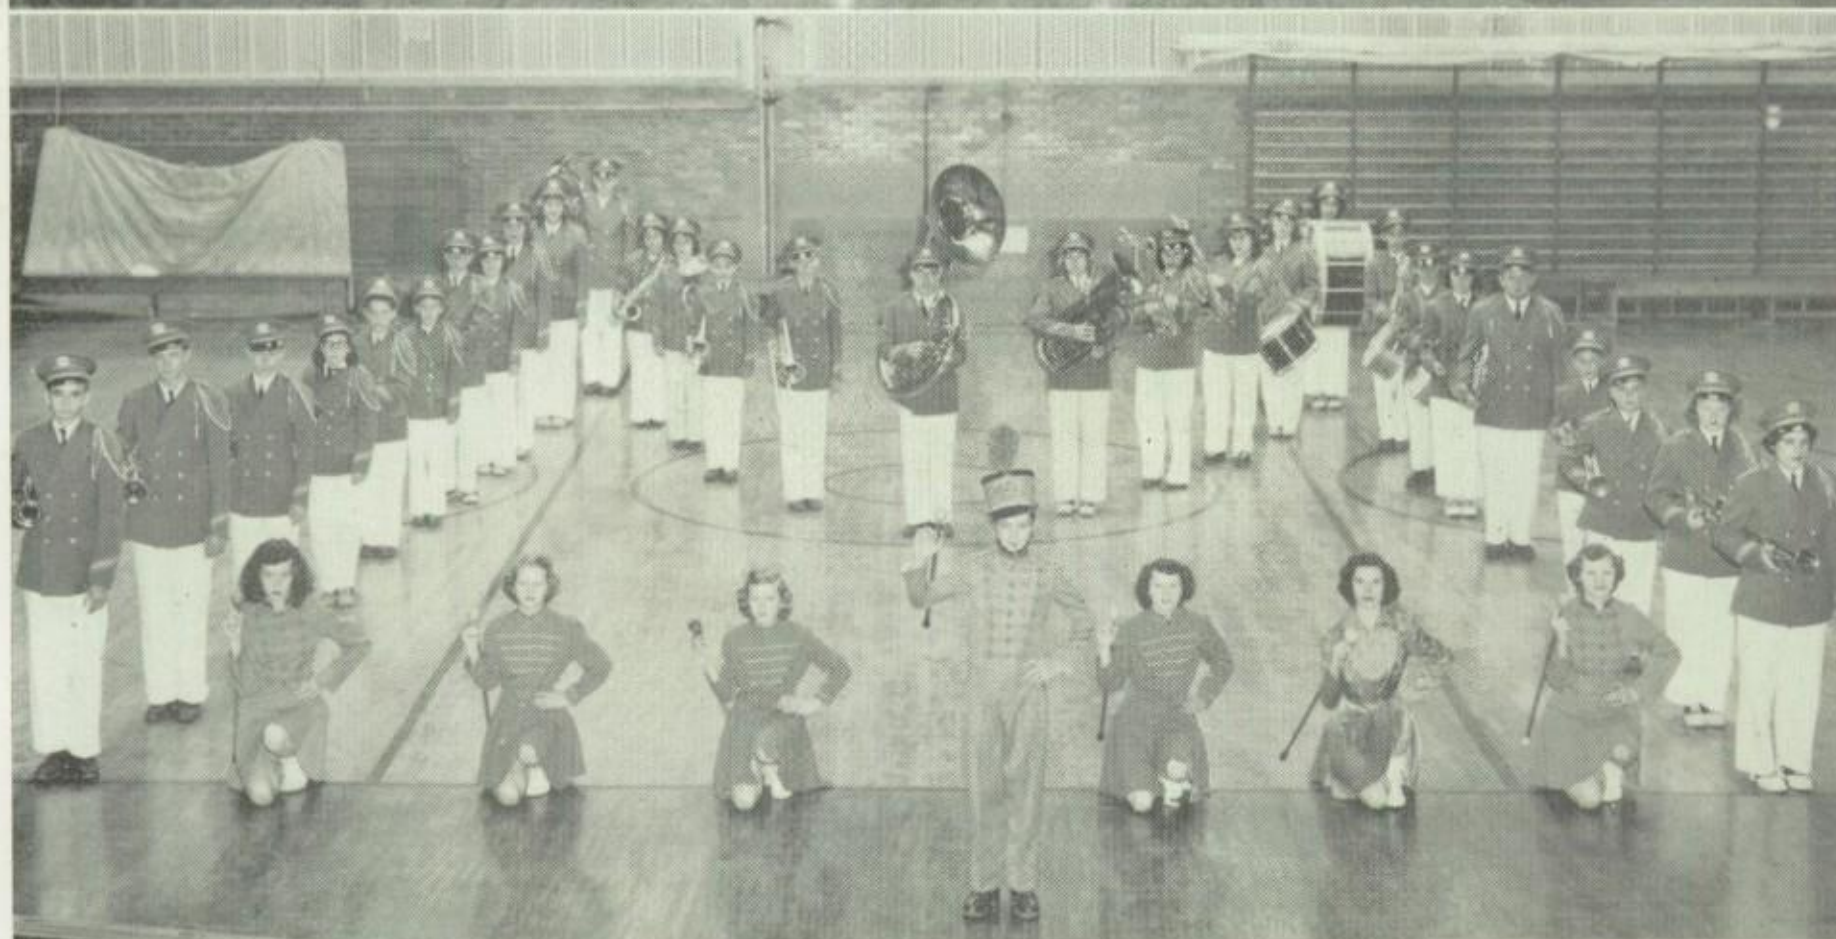

To learn how news stories are written, both sections of English 11 studied news stories during the first two weeks of school. Eligibility for the staff requires that a junior be free for staff meeting the seventh period every Monday. When a convocation is called for that period, the news is written during the fifth period English class. Miss Albertson is the sponsor.

"GABRIEL, BLOW YOUR HORN."

Miss Thelma Smith, deciding to break up an affair between her niece Janet and Herb Brown, Jr., plans to take Janet and some of her friends for a visit to the hills. Learning of her plan, Herb persuades Gabe, the caretaker of the cabin where they plan to stay, to let him disguise as his cousin so that he can be near Janet.

Janet discovers Herb shortly after they arrive, and he tries to coax her to marry him. Janet refuses because her Aunt Thelma hates Herb; for Thelma and Herb's father were in love when they were young but had had an argument over one of Thelma's hats.

When Mr. Brown discovers that Herb has left home, he traces all clues until he finds him. Upon arriving in the hills, Herb Sr., has an accident which compels him to stay at Miss Thelma's. When they have talked things over, they decide that they have acted very foolishly.

After their troubles are fixed up, they gladly give their consent for Herb Jr., and Janet to marry.

"BITS OF BLARNEY"

When Peggy O'Neil comes to visit her aunt, all the young men around that part of the Irish countryside fall in love with her. This turns the local girls against her. To secure revenge, they and Patrick, whom Peggy really cares for, devise a plan to win their lovers back.

Wishing to be friends with the girls, Peggy and Mike O'Noole, a noted Mr. Fix-it, also devise a plan to have the boys return to their first loves and to win Patrick back.

Both Peggy and Pat disguise themselves and unknowingly tell each other their true feelings. The boys return to their former girl friends, and Peggy's and Patrick's broken hearts are mended.

"TWO GENTLEMEN AND VERONA"

The Red Barn Players needed money desperately to continue their summer's program. Their best opportunity to acquire money lay in wealthy Neila Lansing, who insisted on the leads in the plays in exchange for the use of her money. Verona Wood was the favorite of the rest of the players and the obvious one to have the leads.

When Milton J. Sweezy, a talent scout, came to their theatre, Neila naturally insisted on the lead, and Verona became her under-study. Bill Kennedy, in love with Verona, wanted her to have her chance; so on the night of the production, he lured Neila away until the play was over. Verona played the lead.

However, Mr. Sweezy did not like Verona's acting and chose only Sarah Brown to go to Hollywood. This made Bill happy, since he would not marry an actress; and Verona decided being Bill's wife would be more exciting than being a third-rate actress.

Oh! the old swimmin'-hole: In the long, lazy days
When the humdrum of school made so many run-a-ways,
How pleasant was the journey down the old dusty lane,
Where the tracks of our bare feet was all printed so plane
You could tell by the dent of the heel and the sole
They was lots o'fun on hands at the old swimmin'-hole.
But the lost joys is past! Let your tears in sorrow roll
Like the rain that ust to dapple up the old swimmin'-hole.

PACERS WIN SIXTEEN

MR. FARIS

MR. FARIS: This is Mr. Faris' first year here. He has developed the Pacers into one of the best teams in the district. We hope he'll be here next year to keep those Pacers prancing along.

BUD SHORES: (Ears) showed up well this year. His rebounding ability pulled the Pacers out of many scrapes. His height was especially helpful during the game with Berne. Being a junior, he will carry on next year.

DAVID WILSON: (Useless) always did his best when sent into a game. Though he didn't see much action during his senior year, he showed up well during the Hartford City game.

DON ELY: (Ely) has been a Pacer for two years. Don's rebounding ability has spelled downfall for many opponents this year. As he is a junior, he'll still be in there scrapping next year.

BILL EVERHART: (the Kid) is probably one of the best ball-handlers the Pacers have ever had. Bill has been on the team for three years. Ahead or behind, he never gave up. His speed and ability to snatch the ball right out of his opponent's hands were great assets in the Berne game. Bill is a senior and will not be around next year.

DAVE PEARSON: (Junior) has been the number one reserve man this year. His outstanding games were the Fairmount and Geneva games. His left-handed shots will help the Pacers out next year, as he is a junior.

LAWRENCE BEYMER, when filling in a forward spot, could be counted on to do a good job. Being a senior, he will be missed next year.

JIM LIECHTY: (Chickie) has been playing with the Pacers for three years. His sharp eye for the basket enabled the team to overcome many opponents this year. Jim was top scorer in the county this year, with a total of 289 points. He is a senior and will be greatly missed next year.

JOE DAILY: (Joe) is a senior and has been with the team for two years. Joe's work under the basket will be missed next year.

BOB GARRISON: (Bob) has been a Pacer for three years and was one of our heaviest scorers this season. Bob made high score for the team in six games, his highest being in the Albany game, 27 points. Being a senior, he will be missed by the Blue and Gold next year.

RAYMOND DEARDUFF: (Bing) didn't get to play much this year, but when put into the lineup, he could be counted on to do a good job. Bing is a senior and will not be around next year.

PAUL PUGH

PAUL PUGH: (Stooge) has been student manager to the Pacers for three years. He'll be back next year to keep those balls polished.

September 30, 1949

Dear Leona,

"With idle works of any kind and so I read my book." Yes, school has begun.

We started school on September 6, a little later than you did. We all missed you this year. How do you like your new school? How should you like me to write you at times and tell you all that happens at school?

We had a balcony meeting the first day to get acquainted with the new students and teachers. We have four new teachers: Mr. and Mrs. Faris, who took Mr. Shoemaker's and Miss Owen's places, Mrs. Hall, who took Miss Smith's place; and—a very funny thing—Mr. Hall, who took Mr. Funderburg's place, but who is no relation to Mrs. Hall.

Susan Wright was elected president by the Senior Class. Who is president of your class?

Did you have your chest x-rayed? All students who wished were x-rayed September 20. Tryouts were held for Ra Von September 21. Twenty tried out, but only twelve places were vacant, so eight were disappointed.

All day September 28 students were being shot, but not by a gun. Class and faculty pictures were taken then. You should have seen some of your classmates September 29, dressed up for senior pictures.

You should have been here for our all-school convocation on September 30. It was surely good.

I will keep you posted as the months roll by.

Love,
Jo

October 31, 1949

Dear Leona,

Yes, October, "When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock," is about gone.

Full speed ahead for the seniors! We gave our Annual skits on the 4th and started selling our Annual. Want to buy one? We held our first sports dance October 5. What club did you join? We had club organization on the 7th.

Our first chapel was held on the 11th, with Rev. Bright, the new Nazarene minister, in charge.

If you had come over the 12th, you would have wondered what had come over us, with students wearing clothes backwards and onions around their necks. Yes, you guessed it; initiation for Ra Von and F. H. A. New girls and boys in the Commerical Club were initiated on the 14th. Girls wore men's hats, and boys wore women's hats. Yell leader tryouts were also held the 14th. Nancy Oswalt and Marilyn and Sandy Hoover won.

If you want to learn more about courtesy you should hear Mr. Dallavaux lecture on it, for he is surely good. We heard him on the 18th.

Students were both happy and sad the 20th because we received our report cards. Did you make all A's? On the 21st we presented the operetta, "Bits of Blarney." If you didn't see it, you missed something. Have you started selling your season basketball tickets? We began the 24th. Girls in the junior and senior classes interested in nursing went to Ball State for a tea on the 25th. Students had a rest and teachers went to school on the 26th and 27th because of Teachers' Association.

I hope you can come back to school to visit some time soon.

Your pal,
Jo

November 30, 1949

Hi Leona,

November—"And you hear the kyock and gobble of the strutting turkey cock."

This month began our season of basketball, so we held a pep session with our new yell leaders on November 2. That night we played Lancaster, our first game, and lost. We held our club meeting on the 4th.

Rev. Stapp, of the Baptist Church was our second chapel minister, the 8th.

We held our second dance on the 4th. For Education Week, we had an interesting program on the 11th, about how schools grew from Colonial times to the present. We defeated Dunkirk that night.

The seniors were excited the 15th because the photographer distributed their pictures. Everybody's pictures were good. Were yours?

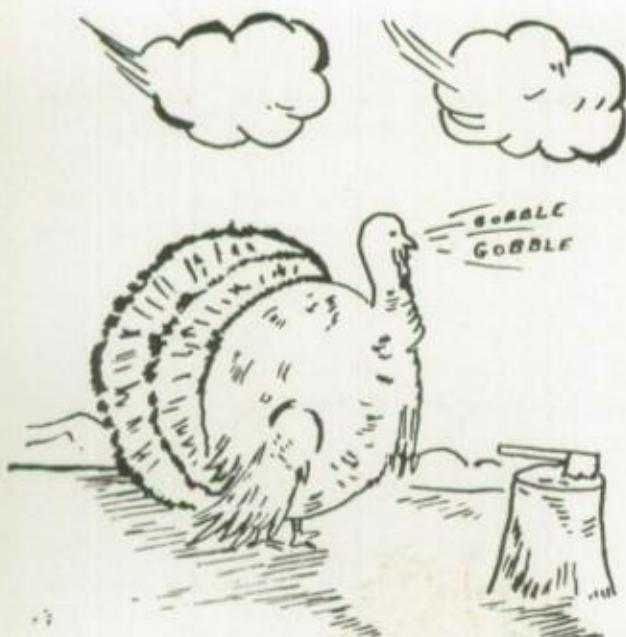

November 17, Mr. Lieurance, superintendent of Jay County schools, spoke of his travels in Europe. The 18th we played Warren and won.

On the 22nd Mr. Pogue, brother of the poet, spoke on his hobby of sandblasting glass and showed a film and some beautiful pieces of glass he had engraved. That night we won from Geneva.

For Thanksgiving convocation the Eighth Grade gave an interesting program.

November 29 we won another victory; Petroleum this time. Five games in a row! Not bad! I hope to see you at the 4-team tourney. Bye now.

Jo

December 31, 1949

Dear Leona,

"Long afore I knowed who Santy Clause wuz!" Yes, this is the month of Christmas.

A Hi-Y party was held in the gym on the first. The second six weeks ended the 2nd. We held our club meetings that day. We played Fairmount that night and won.

Do you remember Otto Schacht, who spoke on breathing and singing few years ago? We heard him again on the 5th. He has a wonderful voice. We also had a musical program the 6th, with an evangelist from the Baptist Church, his wife, and two daughters, who are all musicians. He played the saw.

December 7, the sophomores held a party. On the 9th the seniors sponsored a program by the Hoosier Corn Huskers to raise more money for the Annual. They are surely entertaining.

As you know, we were beaten in the finals of the 4-team tourney, by Roll (your school now.) That was a good game, even if we did lose.

On the 12th a man from the telephone company showed a film that explained how to use the new dial phones. Our December chapel was conducted by Reverend Humerickhouse of the Methodist Church.

You should have been here the 16th to see us beat Hartford. We were certainly happy about it. We played Ridgeville the 20th, and beat them, too.

We missed you when Ra Von had their Christmas party. December 23, we held our Christmas program at 10:00 and were dismissed at noon for vacation until January 2.

I hope you had a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Bye for now,
Jo

January 31, 1950

Dear Leona,

"Snow is in the air—Chill in blood and vein—Winter everywhere." This month should have been snowy, but some days were just like spring.

At club meeting January 6, Ra Von sponsored a movie about Riley Hospital, which several other clubs attended. We played Albany that night and won.

At chapel, January 10, Reverend Tulis from the Church of Christ spoke on "A message to Young People."

January 11, an all-school dance was presented. You should have been to our class party on the 12th, if you like to square dance, because that is just what we did. Then on the 13th we seniors gave our convocation. It was Friday 13, but not an unlucky day, because our convo came off just fine. It was an imitation of a radio show. Another victory! We won from Mississinewa that night.

Nothing much happened the next week because all of us were too busy getting ready for semester exams. One important event, though, was our game with Roll, the 20th. The boys played a great game, but lost (as you know).

Some were smiling and others, sighing, the 26, because report cards were given out. A semester over already.

We seniors selected our class colors, motto, and flower at home room meeting, the 27th. We defeated Portland that night.

Good by for now,
Joan

February 28, 1950

Dear Leona,

"To smile behind my lessons at that old sweetheart of mine." This month makes people think of each other and send a valentine.

The very first day of February we had a basketball game with Chester and won. The Annual staff met February 2 to make out the will and prophecy. We defeated Redkey on the 3rd.

Paul Burke, a cartoonist, entertained us on the 6th. We won another victory the 8th, when we played Pennville. Farmers' Institute was all day the 10th. The Junior Dramatic Club put on a play, "The Green Eyed Monster," at the close of the program. It was surely good. We beat Liberty Center that night.

February 13, Reverend Westervelt from the Christian Church gave the address at chapel. All the Speech Class went to Hartford City to hear Clyde Hyde deliver his speech in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. He had a good speech but was defeated.

The Junior convocation was on February 17. That night we played Berne and won our last game before the tourney.

On the 20th, we had a balcony meeting to see the seven senior boys on the team receive their jackets.

We were disappointed in losing the tourney, but proud of our boys for going as far as they did. The following Monday we held a pep session to congratulate the coach and the boys on their fine games.

The fourth six weeks will end this week. Graduation is drawing nearer and nearer.

Bye now,
Joan

March 2, 1950

Dear Leona,

"I am the wind and I ride mankind." This month certainly came in like a lion.

I must rush to catch the postman, so I will just give you a preview of the coming events.

This month starts off with a feed for the team on the third and a dance on the eighth. The Seventh Grade will give their convocation on the tenth. Then we will have a nice rest, March 23 and 24, for spring vacation.

March 28, at 2:30 we will have the Delph River Quarett. The Junior Class play, "Three Blind Dates", will be presented on the 31st. Maybe you can come.

Well, that sums up the events for March.

Your friend,
Joan

Dear Leona,

April, 1950

"And writhed in the falling rain." Yes, this is the month of rain.

Since, I have to hurry to get this in the mail, I will write you a short letter, giving you some previews of what is to come.

April 11, we are to have our last chapel service. An all-school dance will be held on the twelfth. The last high school convocation of the year will be given by the sophomores, April 14. The last club meeting of this school year will be the twenty-first.

I imagine you will graduate this month, won't you? When? We have one more month yet. That is all the events I can definitely give you.

Bye, now,
Jo

May, 1950

Dear Leona,

"But yesterday O, blooms of May"

As this will be the busiest month of all for us seniors, I will write you another short letter.

The month will start off with our class play, May 5. Be sure to come. May 10, the last school dance will be held.

The grade school will give a convocation May 12. I like to watch those little children, don't you? Some of us seniors will dread May 16, if we have to take our exams. On the twenty-first of May we have Baccalaureate. May 22 we seniors will be back for Honor Day. Underclass exams will be May 23, and that night we shall graduate.— It doesn't seem possible. I shall miss the fun we had in school; won't you?

I hope to see you at some of these events, as your school will be out.

Your friend,
Joan

THE CLASS OF '50

Forty-five in number is our 1950 class,
And we'll leave M. H. S. with sorrow.
So open wide the door and let us pass;
We are the citizens of tomorrow.
Although many more of us started,
Some could not maintain the pace;
Others came, and some departed,
And a few have dropped from the race.
Now that the contest is nearly finished
And forty-five have stood the strife,
Our hopes and dreams have not diminished;
Soon we shall trip the road of life.

We are the doctors and the teachers,
We are the grocers and farmers, too;
We are the bankers, the voters, the preachers;
We shall complete what we start to do.
We are the children of yesteryear,
The girl in pigtails, the boy in overalls
Suddenly grown up; but without fear
Do we listen to life's beckoning calls.
For we are the Class of Nineteen-fifty,
And though the going may be rough,
We'll bypass all the slow and shifty;
What ever it takes, we have the stuff.

Bill Krebs

THE HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '50

In the year '46-'47, fifty-four timid students started on their first experience in high school. We hoped that this would be such an experience that we would somehow find the urge—or should I have said the courage—to stay with it for three more years. We are proud that no one withdrew that year. Two students joined us: Jean Baker from Roll and William Krebs from Knightstown.

We chose as our class officers: president, Nancy Oswalt; vice-president, Marilyn Futrell; secretary-treasurer, Kathryn Waltz; girl adviser, Jeanette Williams; and boy adviser, Billy Everhart. Our sponsors were Miss Rea and Mr. Shoemaker.

A class party was held in the gymnasium on December 9. Our convocation, "The Life o' the Party," was held on January 31.

Fifty-five not-quite-so timid sophomores entered in the fall of '47. We were unhappy when Don Adams had the urge to meet the world and left us to struggle by ourselves; however, Leo VanCamp rushed over from Roll to take his place.

We chose as our class officers: president, Jim Liechty; vice-president, Joe Daily; secretary-treasurer, Peggy Ely; girl adviser, Imogene Needler; and boy adviser, Billy Everhart. Our sponsors were Miss Morton and Mr. Brinkerhoff.

We held a party in the gymnasium, November 13. Our part in the all-school convocation was an accordion solo by Jim Liechty and a stunt by Shirley Trump and Susan Wright.

Forty-nine students entered as juniors in the fall of '48. We were all eager for this term to progress, as we knew that this would be the most exciting year of all.

Withdrawals were: Dorothy Love, Tom Caylor, and Jean Baker. Charlotte Eloph from Waterloo joined us.

We chose as our officers: president, Kathryn Waltz; vice-president, Jim Liechty; secretary-treasurer, Jeannette Williams; girl adviser, Harriet Reasoner; and boy adviser, Bill Everhart. Our sponsors were Miss Nelson and Mr. Wilson.

We sponsored two magazine sales, the first in October and the second in November. The captains were Jim Liechty and Marilyn Hoover. Tom Caylor was awarded a ball point pen for selling the largest number of subscriptions. It was a happy day in December when the class rings arrived. We enjoyed having charge of the refreshment stand at all home games. We presented our convocation on February 4, at which much talent was displayed. Our first party was held in February, and another was planned for the spring. In April the class presented "Gabriel, Blow Your Horn." We enjoyed putting it on under the direction of Miss Nelson.

The Junior-Senior banquet was held on May 20, followed by a dance. The theme for the occasion was "Wheeling Westward."

In the last years, '49-'50, forty-five students entered. We were unhappy when Jimmie McClain withdrew.

We chose as our officers: president, Susan Wright; vice-president, Joe Daily; secretary-treasurer, Jim Liechty; girl adviser, Kathryn Waltz; and boy adviser, Bill Everhart. The sponsors were Miss Albertson and Mr. Morgan.

Those serving on Students Affairs were Bill Everhart and Claredene Morris.

We sponsored the Hoosier Cornhuskers to raise money for our Annual.

The Annual drive was launched by our giving a short skit in which various members of the class represented different people and told why they should like to buy an Annual.

We put on our convocation January 13. It was presented in hillbilly style. We had with us on this occasion such outstanding persons as "Minnie Pearl" Howard, the "Texas Troubadours", "Little Country Girl," and various others, including the two honored guests, Jim Liechty and Joe Daily.

"When my dreams come true, When my dreams come true."

As our class flower we chose the American Beauty rose. Our motto is "Be good; do good; make good". The class colors are green and white.

We presented our class play on May 5. The Annual arrived on May 10. Final exams were on May 18. Baccalaureate services were on the 21st, Honor Day was May 22, commencement was the 23rd, and the Alumni Banquet was held on May 26. The class of '50 joins the ranks of the Alumni.

50's FUTURE

A double wedding was performed in the Little Church Around the Corner on July 4, 1955. Miss Nancy Oswalt plighted her troth to James Liechty, and Miss Charlotte Eloph, to Raymond Dearduff. The Rev. Clyde Hyde officiated at the double ring ceremony. While the organist, Miss Kathryn Waltz, presented a medley of bridal airs, Miss Inis Parker and Miss Edith Spaulding lit the candles. Miss Marilynn Futrell and Miss Marilyn Hoover sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The brides selected white satin gowns, exquisitely designed by Miss Carol Teegarden from the famous dress shop owned by Mademoiselle Joan Wentz. Attending the couples were Miss Imogene Needler and Miss Peggy Ely as maids of honor and Bill Everhart and David Wilson as best men. Ushers were Jim Cale, Wendell Wells, Dwight Helm, and Verlin Sills.

Preceding the brides as flower girl and ring bearer were the small twins, Connie and Ronnie Batten, children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Batten (the former Margaret Love). On the entrance of the brides, pictures were taken by Lawrence Beymer, chief photographer of Life magazine. The church decorations and the brides' bouquets were fashioned by the exclusive Fifth Avenue Flower Shoppe owned by Miss Mary Alice Beeks.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. Serving at the reception were: Mrs. Don Snyder, formerly Jeweldine Baker; Mrs. Tom Harter, formerly Amelia Clamme; and Mrs. Bill Cunningham, formerly Kathryn Barr. Ice cream, donated by Miss Harriet Reasoner, owner of the Rexall Drug Store, with the wedding cake, baked by Miss Jeannette Williams of "Jeanie's Sweet Shoppe," was served to the following guests: William Krebs, editor of New York Times; Miss Susan Wright and Miss Claredene Morris, nurses at Riley Hospital; Bob Garrison, coach of the Zollner Pistons; Fred Mock, professor of geography; Jerry Armstrong, a Texas rencher, who slept through the ceremony; band leader Joe Daily; Elizabeth Howard, star of the Grand Ole Opera; Shirley Trump, coach of the Fort Wayne "Daisies Maes"; and Roberta Russell of "Bertie's Beauty Shoppe". Special guests included Miss Lillie Albertson and Mr. H. G. Morgan, who were presented new fords from the Ford dealer, Francis Ford.

After the bouquets had been caught by Miss Patti Buckley and Miss Albertson, the wedding party was flown by the Robert Pence Airlines to the Ritz Hotel owned by Delora Hayes. Miss Eleanor Rogers, cook, and Miss Ruth Anderson, waitress, former classmates, served a delicious dinner at the close of the wedding day.
